

VOLUNTEER

CADDOGAN HALL

Cadogan Hall Volunteer Programme

Why become a Cadogan Hall Volunteer?

It's a fantastic way to meet some interesting and amazing people, have the opportunity to experience great music and enjoy world class performances – not to mention benefiting from: bar food and drinks concessions, paid travel expenses and some fun Volunteer Social Events throughout the year.

Who are we looking for?

Cadogan Hall Volunteers are a very friendly, diverse and sociable group of individuals with sparkling personalities.

What's essential for the role?

Personality, personality, personality; reliability, good personal grooming, a great sense of humour and, crucially, someone who is calm, confident and polite in a busy public-facing role.

What's involved?

Meeting and greeting, ushering, answering patron queries, selling programmes, ice-cream or merchandise – these are some of the things that our Volunteers do to help make concerts and events an enjoyable experience for our patrons.

What next?

If you are interested please get in touch for an informal chat as we are always keen to add to our welcoming Cadogan Hall Volunteer Team.

Call Walter Morrison on 020 7824 7602 or email walter.morrison@cadoganhall.com